

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

ID

TM27_DIP_GIU

Teach Mob – Visiting Professors Academic year 2017/2018

1 st Term
COURSE TITLE Introduction of French Legal History
Scientific area Law
Department of Law
Language used to teach English
Teaching Commitment: 20 hours
Course summary The course aims to offer a general outline of the institutions and sources of French Law from the Middle Age to the Modern and Contemporary Age, with particular reference to the last two centuries. The course will be particularly dedicated to the civil law and the justice organization in France, comparing to the other legal systems influenced by the French model. The lectures intend offers the guidelines of the legal culture, explaining the various situations, evolved and emerged especially during the XIX-XXth centuries, through the direct examination of several pieces of legislation and case law.
Learning objectives Acquisition of specific skills on the legal culture in Continental Europe, essential for the lawyer. The aims of this course in to devote significant analysis to the current historical Law problems in Continental Europe, providing a general background of the legal French Law sources.
Tutorship activities According to the general Department Syllabus
Other activities besides the course: i.e. seminars and conferences addressed to PhD students and research fellows, dissemination conferences Conferences addressed to PhD students.

Visiting Professor Profile Full Professor of Legal History in French Universities, with a particular knowledge in political institutions and history of justice.
--

Contact person at the Department Prof.ssa Elisa Mongiano – elisa.mongiano@unito.it paola.gammino@unito.it
--